

Guidelines for Australian Institute of Art History research grants:

These research grants have been funded by the Australian Institute of Art History and are being offered in partnership with the Art Association of Australia and New Zealand.

Eligibility & selection criteria

Eligibility

There are four categories of eligibility. To be eligible for this research grant, you need to be:

- 1) an art historian or PhD student in Art History in one of the following categories
 - Institutional art historian (i.e. working in an academic or cultural institution such as a university, art museum, public library, etc.).
 - Independent art historian.
 - Emerging art historian (PhD student or Early Career Researcher in Art History, i.e. PhD granted no earlier than 2014)
 - Indigenous Australian, New Zealand Maori or Pasifika art historian
- 2) currently a member of the Art Association of Australia and New Zealand (AAANZ).

Selection criteria

- Academic merit of project
- Track record and capacity of applicant

Recipients are required to:

- Accept the award online within 7 working days
- Expend all funds within 12 months of receipt unless permission has been granted by the selection committee.
- Submit a final report.

Number of Scholarships awarded:

Ten research grants of $5,000 each.

Application process

Eligible applicants must submit:

- A short Curriculum Vitae (CV) of one page.
- A description of 300-500 words outlining the project to be undertaken, the resources needed, and the importance of the work to be done.
- A budget (one page).
- Two academic references (names and contact details).

How to apply?

Applications open: 1 September 2020

Applications close: Friday 2 October 2020

Online entries submitted to: admin@aaanz.info

When will I know the outcome?

TBC

ENQUIRIES: admin@aaanz.info

For further information at the Australian Institute of Art History:
<https://arts.unimelb.edu.au/australian-institute-of-art-history>